

First Sergeant (1SG)

The First Sergeant is primarily an advisor to the company commander. The 1SG focuses on the discipline and morale of the unit.

- Lead by example
- Held by a Master Sergeant (MSG)/ (1SG)
- Know how to properly use JUMS
- Know how to run a company
- Counsel Platoon Sergeants
- Accountable for promotions, awards, company accuracy in JUMS
- Attend promotions board, prepare cadets to attend boards
- Time management
- Inspection of company
- Train company in marching, drill, and inspection procedures and standards
- Enforce and execute Co CDR's directives, standards, and guidance
- Train and develop subordinate cadets for promotion
- Maintain unit physical accountability
- Maintain effective communication with Co CDR, PSG's, SL's other 1GS's, and CSM
- Coordinate with Co CDR, other 1SG's, CSM, PSG's
- Keep cadets informed